

As an American citizen, I am outraged that Sinclair Broadcasting has ordered its 62 TV stations to pre-empt regular prime-time programming in favor of airing the film "Stolen Honor: Wounds That Never Heal" ---and is being allowed to do so!!!!

I strongly urge the Federal Communications Commission to investigate Sinclair's decision to air what is virtually an unpaid 90-minute attack ad against Sen. John Kerry.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest--not their own obvious political agenda.

Thank you
